

CAIT REDMAN

DIRECTOR

✉ caitredman@gmail.com

📍 Staunton, VA

🌐 <https://caitredman.wixsite.com/caitredman>

DIRECTING PHILOSOPHY

I approach directing as an opportunity to crack into the hearts of an audience through story. I lead rehearsal rooms that are highly collaborative, text-based and viewpoint driven with a goal of finding the plot of a given story through character relationships. I find the heart of a play in the hearts of its characters.

SELECTED EXPERIENCE

Professional Directing

Emily Bronte, Teenage Necromancer
By Don Zolidis

Silver Line Theatre Exchange

Educational Directing

Troilus and Cressida
By Shakespeare

Meadowlark Shakespeare Players

The Spanish Tragedy
By Thomas Kyd

Shakespeare & Performance Program

Twelfth Night, Or What You Will
By Shakespeare

Shakespeare & Performance Program

Assistant Directing

Little Women
Adapted by Erin Riley

Dir. Constance Swain at The American Shakespeare Center

Dracula: A Comedy of Terrors
By G. Greenberg & S. Rosen

Dir. Matt Radford Davies at The American Shakespeare Center

Art
By Yasmina Reza

Dir. Constance Swain at Silver Line Theatre Exchange

The Knight of the Burning Pestle
By Francis Beaumont

Dir. Constance Swain for Meadowlark Shakespeare Players

Staged Readings, Pop-up Events, and Festivals

Pop-up Event: Directed a Shakespearean scene showcase (Midsummer 2.1, Twelfth Night 3.1, and Henry VIII 5.4) representing the American Shakespeare Center at the celebration of Queen Elizabeth I's birthday and logo launch of Agecroft Hall and Gardens in Richmond, VA. September 7, 2025.

Staged Reading: Directed Crayon Sun by Tlaloc Rivas as part of the WATERWORKS25 New Works Festival at Live Arts Charlottesville, VA. May 16-June 1, 2025

Festival Event: Assisted director Constance Swain on the tribute to Nikki Giovanni at the Virginia Festival of the Book. The tribute included the coordination of dance troupes, a live band, and poetry readings. Charlottesville, VA March 2025.

EDUCATION

Master of Fine Arts in Shakespeare & Performance, Mary Baldwin University, 2024